DRESS CODE

In accordance with Installation Policy, all children and adults should present a well-groomed and acceptable appearance at school and at all school functions. Any clothing that distracts students from learning or presents a safety hazard is inappropriate for school. Students in violation of the dress code will be required to call parents for a change of clothing.

Examples of distracting or unsafe clothing include:

Clothes which expose the midriff (dresses, pants, or shirts including belly shirts, muscle shirts, halters, tank tops, elastic or mesh tube tops, spaghetti straps, cut-off tops, shirts with words that draw attention to the chest)

Clothes that are too tight or too short (dresses, skirts, mini-culottes, shorts)*

Clothes/tattoos with offensive pictures or logos (obscenities, pornography, racial slurs, lewd pictures, or other controversial symbols).

Hats, caps, visors, combs, picks, bandannas (No bandannas worn or carried. Caps worn outside must have the bill turned forward at all times).

Pants: rolled-up pant legs, pants which sag, pants which drag on the ground, pants that are excessively large, pants with words written across the buttocks

Shoes which do not fasten. (Appropriate footwear should be worn for recess, PE, and play). No flip-flops.

Gothic: (excessive wearing of all black) or gang-type clothing

*Parents can determine if clothing is too short by making sure that the clothing exceeds the length of students' fingertips when their arms are hanging by their sides.

If a child's waistline is exposed when arms are raised then the top is too small and parents will be contacted to bring a change of clothing to school.

Use of hair coloring that is distracting (i.e., neon red, pink, yellow, green etc.).
